Information for Exhibitors

Terms and Conditions

- The Glyn Wylfa Development Trust logo must be used in any marketing materials. This is available with prior notice in a variety of electronic formats from the Enterprise Manager.
- Unloading of art works at Glyn Wylfa can be arranged with the Enterprise Manager. Parking is available in the car park. All artworks and information panels are to be displayed using display boards. No other fixing method may be used. No labels, signs or devices may be affixed to walls, panels or doors which in any way will affect these surfaces upon removal. This includes Blutack.
- In order to encourage and promote equal opportunities sales exhibitions must have clear and understandable content labelling.
- Selling your work will be your sole responsibility. The exhibitor must provide a printed price list which should clearly say that the purchaser should contact the artist only, not Glyn Wylfa staff. Staff will not be responsible for any sales.
- The exhibitor is responsible for the stewarding of their own work. Please note Glyn Wylfa Development Trust takes no responsibility for exhibitions attended or unattended or at any time during the time they are on the Glyn Wylfa Development Trust property.
- A charge of 10% of sales will be applied to all exhibitors, this is payable on completion of the specific sales exhibition periods.
- We welcome applications from anyone and everyone who has a wish to exhibit and sell their artwork, crafts and woodwork. From professional artist or organisation, college or student, to individual hobbyist, at any age, please do get in touch!
